

LITTLE ROCK TRACK KEEPS VERY BUSY

Advices From the Arkansas City Say That McChesney Will Surely Start in the Derby.

WAX TAPER ALSO ON DECK.

Captain Rice's Famous Old Horse May Go to the Post at Clinton Park—General Turf Notes.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Little Rock, Ark., March 18.—One week from next Monday the barrier will go up and they will be "off" for the twelfth annual spring meeting of the Arkansas Jockey Club. The New Orleans meeting closed its gates on Saturday. Then comes the week of the New Louisiana Jockey Club, and the horsemen who have been racing those during the winter will head for Little Rock and with the Memphis contingent, which will be over in a few days, there will be no lack of good horses at the meeting.

At present there are 250 horses at the track and it looks as though the city here as elsewhere—lack of stable room.

The Arkansas Derby will be the feature of the opening day, Monday, March 23. There are several good horses in this event entered, whose appearance is certain, and from a chance at their recent performances it appears that the race will not be a walkover for the great McChesney, who is being so heavily touted late. Sam Hill, the owner of McChesney, did not send him to New Orleans to run in that Derby, as he expected to win it. He is very anxious to see him in a race, so he has decided to start him here next Monday.

The other probable starters in the Derby are Huntress, Halmet, Florio, S. Larry Young, Lingo, Major Tenny, Ed Austin and Leelan Appleby.

Lingo won a good race at New Orleans last Saturday and was immediately shipped to Memphis with the balance of Ed Trotter's string, which will start in the Derby with this good filly. She is one of the best 1-year-olds at New Orleans this season and will have the advantage over McChesney and others, that may start in the race of being in regular training, and thoroughly seasoned by actual racing.

Mr. Trotter, who is the crack track sprinter St. Outright, winner of the Speed trial at Little Rock, Daniel & Co. will ship their horse to this city to start in the Derby. Mr. Trotter's other horses, including St. Christopher and Seneca, will start in the Derby. A prominent owner will bring the Bronze Legion, a prominent brood and other well-known horses of his string.

Captain R. R. Rice's great horse, Wax Taper is also scheduled to make his 1902 debut here, and will start in the Derby. Mr. Goldblatt, who has two useful performers, Jessamine and Doctor Hart, will ship to Little Rock to start in the Derby. Mr. Young is said to be Schor's favorite for the Tennessee Derby, and horsemen will watch his race with much interest. All of Barney Schreiber's horses have been put through and some have shown considerable speed. McChesney's division of this stable is expected to arrive in Memphis on Monday.

There will be no lack of good riders at the spring meeting. Tommie Burns, who is still "belling out" at Hot Springs, who probably will be in Memphis, Colman, a boy who is one of the best riders in the city, and will be joined by Winkfield, good riders now at New Orleans, and several other boys who headed the list of winners at Clinton Park last year. Sam Hill is under contract to ride for Colonel McChesney, and will ride at the local meeting before going to New York to fill his engagements.

Colonel S. M. Apperson of Little Rock has been selected to ride in the Derby, and will also act as associate steward at Memphis as well as at Washington Park. He was judged to be a number one rider, but sided with the enemies of that track out of the Clinton Park and has been counted out of the Derby. Alonzo Coles, who has been steward at the Chicago meeting, will probably act in his stead here.

S. Dade will drop the flag and Joseph will officiate as clerk of the scales. Mr. Dade will give all the youngsters a good schooling.
